BIOGRAPHY

(Medium 300 Words)

Lily Grace is an extremely talented singer-songwriter, admired for her connection with her fans, prolific song-writing and undeniable stage presence. Already turning industry heads, collaborating with international artists and songwriters, she was recently featured in 'American Songwriter Magazine,' was a finalist for 'Breakout Artist of the Year' and 'People's Choice' in the 2023 Gold Coast Music Awards, and was a finalist in the 2023 Queensland Music awards.

She's opened for Vance Joy and Human Nature, written & toured with James Blundell, opened for Casey Barnes and Amber Lawrence, and has performed at Australia's Groundwater Country Music Festival & Gympie Muster, as well as at Nashville's iconic Blue Bird Café, CMA Fest, the Nashville 'Sounds Australia Aussie BBQ', Whiskey Jam and internationally across West Virginia, Tennessee and New Jersey, to crowds of up to 40,000 on festival line-ups such as the Barefoot Country Music Festival.

Her first release, 'Annie June' in 2021, a collaboration with James Blundell reached the Top 10 on Australian Country Radio.

Off the heels of her first successful release, solo single 'Sixteen Wishes' was the #1 Streamed and Downloaded Country song for Australia Radio Airplay and reached #3 on the iTunes Australia Country Chart.

Her first US release, 'The Two of Us Meet' has garnered over 1.3 million streams, rising to #23 on the USA Music Row Indie Breakout Chart and debuting at #1 on the iTunes Australia Country Chart, with the song being the #2 streamed and downloaded song for Australian Country radio airplay (Country).

'Follow My Road' bought a confident narrative to the rising singer-songwriter story, as she ventured to Nashville to follow her music dreams. 'Bet On Us' came next and grew her monthly listeners to over 100,000 on Spotify, whilst her most recent song, 'Maybe So' saw her featured as CountryTown's Centrestage Artist.
