

Malachi Gagnon Taps Into Heartbreak & Hope in New Song, "Think About Me"

NASHVILLE, TN – Viral 16 year old country sensation, Malachi Gagnon, displays an organic, new sound in his first release of 2024, "Think About Me," releasing May 31. Built on heartbreak, hope and his hometown, Malachi's music possesses unbridled honesty. "Think About Me" is no exception, while the small town New Hampshire native goes on a musical exploration leaning toward Folk-Pop and Alt-Country.

"I had written hundreds of songs and I felt like I kept being pulled in a more grounded, folksy/singer songwriter style with every song I wrote," states Gagnon, who possesses over 4.5M streams on Spotify alone. "I started listening to Noah Kahan, The Lumineers, Gregory Alan Isakov and a few others who encompass that vibe and drew a ton of inspiration from them."

The severely relatable track notes the vulnerable thoughts after a breakup, wondering if your ex thinks about you the same way you still think about them. "Think About Me" marks Malachi Gagnon's tenth release, and a mature one from such a young artist.
